Dear Ted:

I have your very thoughtful letter of
22 March concerning my talk at the Advertising
Council meeting and I want to tell you how much
I enjoyed participating in your program.

It was a pleasure to join you again and
I greatly appreciate your generous comments about my speech.

With every best wish.

PRESIDENT

March 22, 1960

Dear Allen:

Once again I have occasion to thank you most warmly for your splendid performance at our meeting here last Wednesday.

You were really in top form and fielded all questions in a manner that stirred everyone's admiration. The reaction to your talk was excellent.

I suppose I should feel guilty for imposing on your time once a year, but this is the penalty of excellence.

With personal regards, I am

Cordially,

Theodore S. Repplier
